COUTH AND NORTH;

IMPRESSIONS RECEIVED DURING A TRIP TO CUBA AND THE SOUTH.

By John S. C. Abbott. 1 vol. 12mo., $52 pages. Price $1. VOICE OF THE PRESS. From The New-York Independent.

The VERY BEST BOOK ON SLAVERY TET ISSUED. Sound, judicious, kind, Christian, and most timely and faithful.

'SOUTHERN AGGRESSION' has of late so systematically pursued; and, while condemning the crasy zeal of John Brown, he shows that heroic self-denial for the oppressed puts to shame the coward fury of the South for oppression. Yet the tone of the book, while candid, frank and manly, is always kind and gentle-

"NOT SECTIONAL, BUT FRATERNAL; not partisan, but Christian. He points the South to the simple remedy for existing evils, by substituting wages for the lash, free labor for coerced

From The New-York Tribune "Its animated descriptions, and the frankness and cordiality of its tone, are adapted to give it a favorable reception, even with readers who differ most widely from him in opinion.

The topics to which this volume is devoted, and the spirit in which they are discussed, though they may arouse a tempest of opposition from those who regard silence as the only safety, will secure it a wide circulation among the Friends of Freedom throughout the country."

From The Atlanta (Ga) Confederacy. "It is a CONTENPTIBLE ABOLITION PRODUCTION, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young."

From The Detroit Christian Herald. " It furnishes VALUABLE INFORMATION on the questions which now agitate our country." From The Hartford Evening Press. " His impressions are such as would be derived by any honest fair-minded Northern man. It is warm, DIRECT, MLOQUENT.

From The New-York Observer.
"The book is intensely and avowedly Abolition. ABBEY & ABBOTT, Publishers No. 119 Nassau-st., N. Y.

MR. BONNER AND THE LEDGER. Friend Roys: In reply to yours of the 12th I would reiterate what I once before stated, namely, that I will never do anything to interfere with your trade.

what I once cefore stated, usunely, that I will never do anything to interfore with your trade.

(Signed). On the above and other similar assurances from Mr. Bonner, his friend Roys made the Ledger a prominent feature of his trade. During the month of January, 1950, his weekly sales varied from 1,700 to 2,000, which he received through Messra. H. Dexter & Co of New-York, and paid for every week, as agreed. The last of February, 1850, not aking powession of a larger store, a portion of which he had atted up expressly for the wholesale newspaper trade, Mr. Benner's friend Roys revised his wholesale prices, at disused a new circular to the trade, in which the Ledger was placed liret on the list, and was offered at the least advance over New-York cost.

On the 7th of February, without any notice to Mr. Bonner's friend Roys revised a line from H. Dexter & Co., stating that Mr. Bonner had notified them not to send any Ledgers to J. A. Roys of Detroit. The result is, that Mr. Bonner is friend Roys, no being willing to pay a rival concern twenty-five cents per hundred more than his own wholesale price had been, after applying for retreated a line had no legal remdy, having depended upon Mr. Bonner's word, without a written contract, decided that he would sell no more of Mr. Bonner's Ledgers unless he could be dealt with fairly.
